These scenes are from the English and foreign language departments. First we have Mrs. Lucille Howard's English students showing their book reports. Next we have Miss Ruby Swisher teaching her English class to be serious while speaking before a group. It looks as if it is a lost cause with Hal Furr. "Et tu Brute!" Barbara Small, Ralph Wallace, and Carolyn Denny are showing Miss Lillian Stewart's Latin Class that "all Gaul is divided into three parts." Is all the world a stage? Don Roberts and Barbara Furr are trying to prove it to Miss Hildreth Gabriel's English class. Last but not least, we have Mrs. Verne Quay's English class. Joann, Sylvia, and Betty have taken the reins and are teaching the class about American authors. It looks like they are very interested.

Here are some informal shots from the science department, the library, and study hall. By the way, whom are they trying to fool? Studying in study hall? In the next picture a salesman is demonstrating a projector to Mrs. Fisher and Mr. Glenn. I wonder what that gadget is. "Itchy" really knows how to use the library! These general science students seem to be having quite an experiment. This may be a world shattering event. In the last picture Mrs. Bost is lecturing on biology, but Larry seems interested in something else.

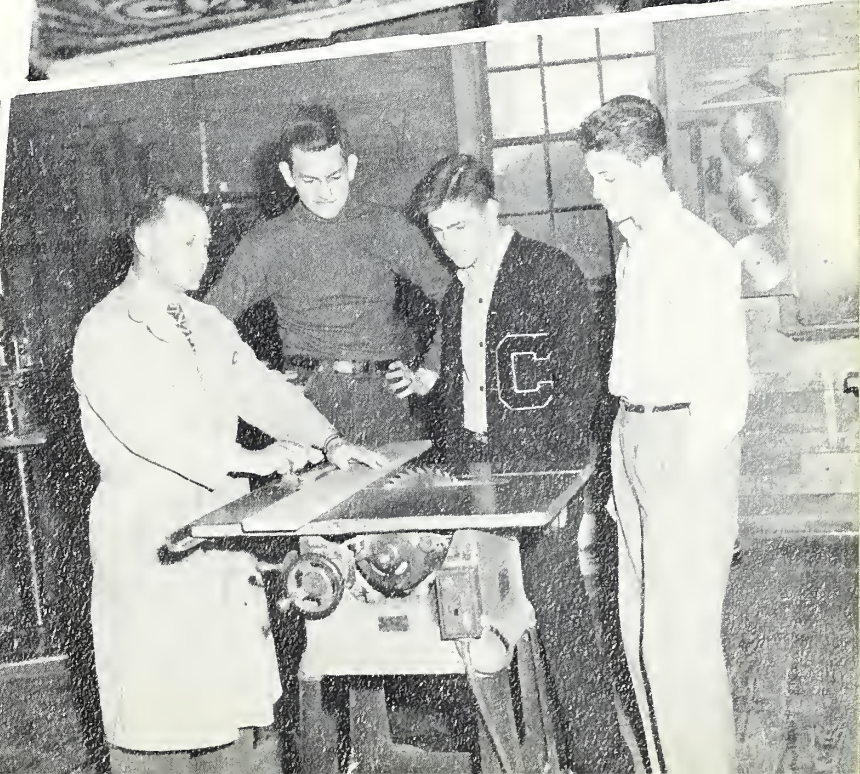

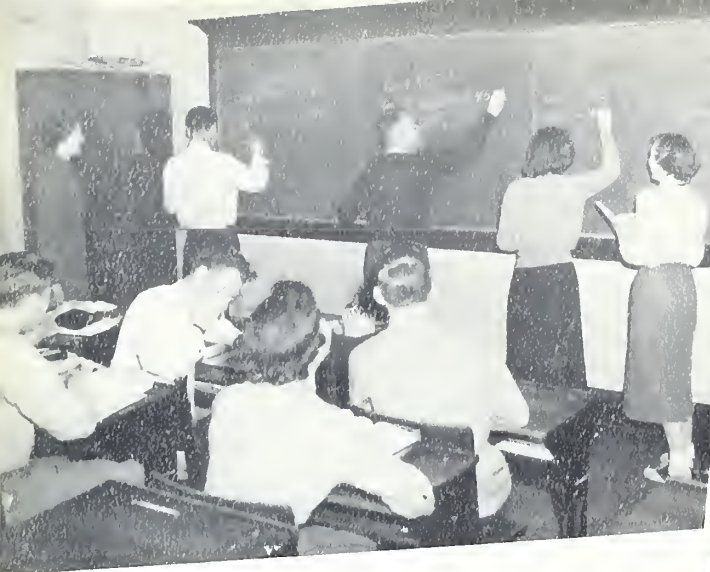

These pictures are from the science and social science departments, and from the cafeteria. Barbara Furr is leading the Bible class in their regular devotionals. Next we have Miss Blanche Stewart's law class, with Margaret Hennessee taking the oath in court. Ah! Look what we have here. Miss Janie Klutz's history class exploring the world. Oh dear! Jimmy Lentz is under the weather. Jeanne Weddington is taking his blood pressure in Mr. Jack Spark's health class. Look what we have here—a snapshot of our cafeteria where students eat their lunches.

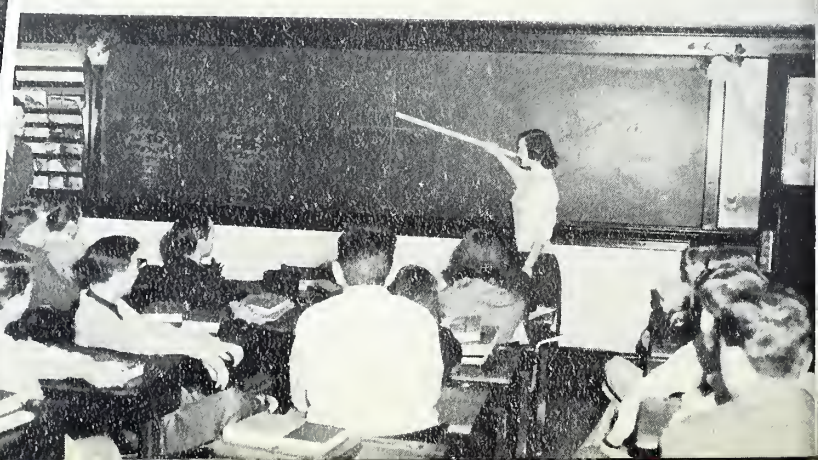

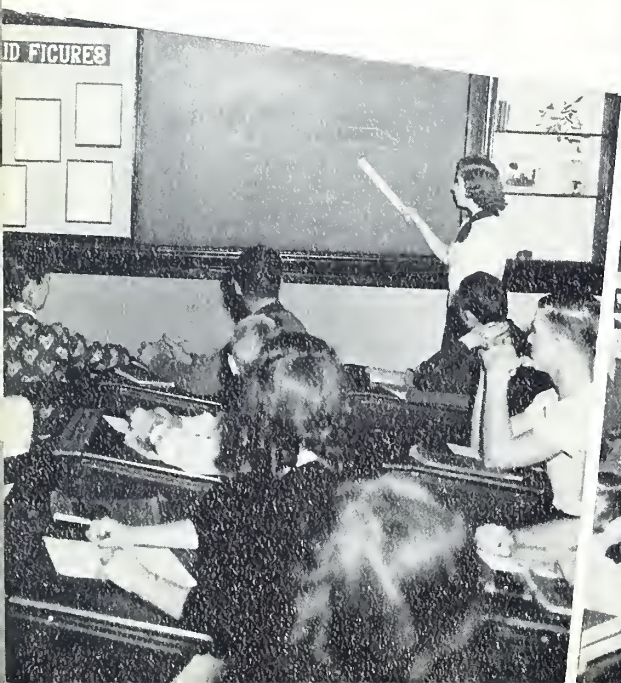

Drivers Education. Beware! Mr Wilson is showing a class the inside of a car. If they got too smart, they could be dangerous. An art class, and look at the diligent students. They really seem to be concentrating on their work. Uh-oh! Do you think these girls will ever learn to cook? I really hope so! Dorothy Barr seems to be working very hard at trying to follow Mrs. Bulla's instructions. Hard at work are these typing students under Mrs. Weddington's watchful eyes. Poor Mr. Black! If he is able to teach John, Don, and Monty anything, boy, is he good! I think the idea is to saw the board in half. That seems easy enough.

Pictures from the math and physical education departments, and the teacher's lounge. Mrs. Alston is teaching her higher algebra class that logarithms are very easy. Larry, Creighton, and Betty don't think so. It is 1:10, and Miss Blanche, Mrs. Howard, and Miss Lillian are resting before their next classes. Crack! Mr. Wilson is teaching his physical education class that it is easy to make a wrestling takedown. Poor ole Bill is the unlucky victim. And now there is an explanation of a rectangular solid in Mrs. Walker's eighth grade math. Mary Brantley explains how to make a graph in Mrs. Holshouser's algebra class.

Tune: Something to Remember You By

*Now all our school days are all past and gone;
And yet we fondly linger here.
You gave us something to remember you by;
Those happy years will ne'er return.
In the world ahead, lie our brightest dreams;
Yet our memories fond, dwell here still.
With saddened hearts and dewey eyes, we depart.
We bid to all a sad farewell.*

*Long will our hearts recall the joys we have known,
That bound us in sweet friendship here.
For time can ne'er bring back these, our high school days,
When we are far away from thee.
We will trod new paths, use the lessons learned,
With the hope that we shall succeed.
Then thanks to thee our C.H.S. as we part;
We bid to thee a sad farewell.*

*With futures bright, we turn away
From thy beloved halls.
That dreamed-of day
For each of us, has come
And duty calls.*

*We'll always be grateful to you, Dear School.
And thanks to our faculty too.
The knowledge, experience, and fun we've had—
We owe it all to you.*

*We owe so much to you, our school,
And may we each repay,
By praying to God for grace
To live in this own way.*

The one-act plays included: "Balcony Scene," "Let's Make Up," and the Thespian play, "Antic Spring." Other one-act plays were given during class competition.

Try for the extra point—Mills Home Game

A general gang-banging in the making—WILKES CENTRAL GAME

At the beginning of the 1952 season, the Spiders had only two first string varsity players returning—Roy Thomas and Gene McLain. Except for the left tackle position, a new team had to be trained and developed.

Due to injuries, inexperience, and bad breaks, the Spiders had a bad season. They played hard, but there was definitely something missing. No one person can be blamed for a bad season. The team lost as a whole. It is wise to leave it that way.

Overshadowed by a bad season, Roy Thomas was one of the most under-rated players in the state. He was always outstanding on both offense and defense and was admired and respected by opposing coaches and teams alike. Being recognized as Concord's most valuable player was only meager tribute to one of the best (if not the best) lineman in the history of Concord High.

Snuggs moving on south with the pigskin—Touchdown!!
Mills Home Game

Don "The Kid" Eudy, a fine 135-pound halfback, made dazzling runs all season, such as the 75-yard return for a touchdown of the opening kickoff against Mt. Airy.

All the drama and action portrayed in the past '52 season can hardly be captured in these few paragraphs. We can only say the past football season and the seasons to come mean a great deal to life and the school spirit at C. H. S.

What are you looking for, boys? He has it. Winecoff game

Kneeling: Coach Floyd Wilson, Buddy McEachern, Don Eudy, Lamarr Hammett, Johnnie Walker, Kenneth Drye.

Standing: Bobby Wade, Ray Lancaster, Ray Jolly, Don Burris, Carroll Snuggs, Jerry Robinson, George Stikeleather, Jack Ridenhour, Billy Ross.

The Concord High School Spiders under Coach Floyd Wilson may not have had the most successful year in their history, but it was not the most unsuccessful season either. The Spiders had more of a "mediocre" year. The boys finished the season with a record of 5 wins and 15 losses in all games played and a conference game record of 4 wins and 9 losses.

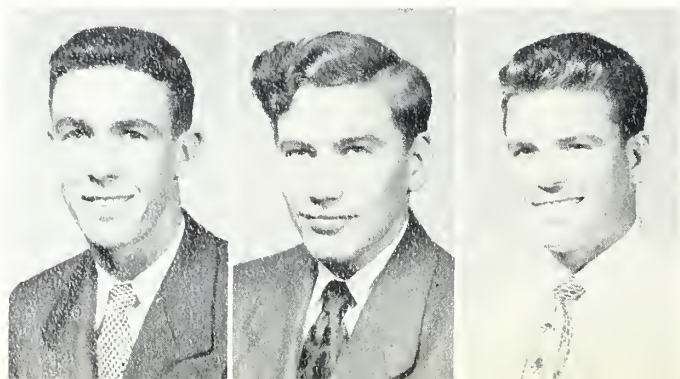

The Spiders had no individual star, but a well-balanced team that is looking forward much more to the future than to the past or present. Coach Wilson feels that the returning Spiders, along with the experienced boys of this year's "B" team, will put up a strong fight for the South Piedmont Conference championship by next season.

Coach Wilson said that he didn't have a first team, but the usual starters for the Spiders were Lancaster and Walker at forwards, Robinson or Burris at center, and Snuggs and McEachern, or Eudy and Hammett at guards.

Coach Jack Spark's Spiderettes enjoyed another bountiful season in the won and loss column. When the final records were in, the girls had won 16 games while dropping only 3. In South Piedmont play, the Spiderettes won 10 and lost 3.

Individually, Sybil Burleyson, high scoring All Conference candidate, was a standout from the very beginning, replacing the very capable Sally Scott in the role of leading scorer for both teams. Joining Burleyson on offense were Maxine Lentz and Mary Brantly as the principle starters. On defense, Deanie Hathcock, Connie Russell, and Polly Page were the usual starters and did commendable jobs all year long.

Supporting the Spiderettes starters game after game were Betty Jean Long, Peggy Lowder, Sara Ann Patterson, Martha Gray, and "Coach" Simpson.

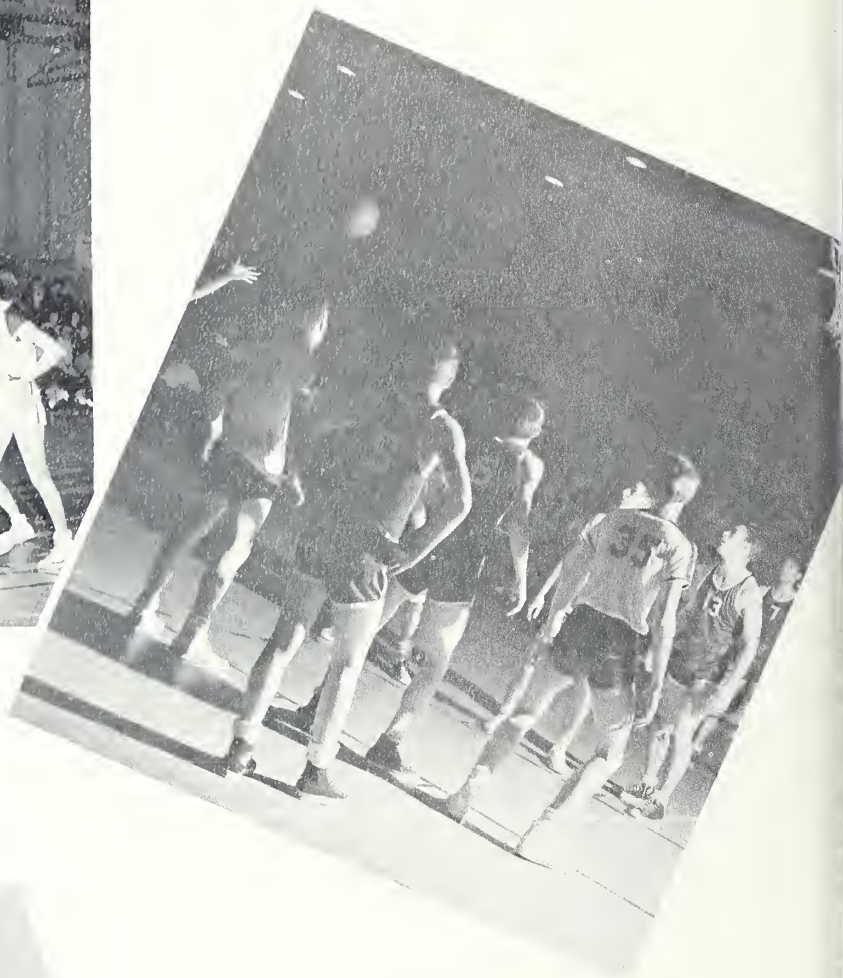

Kneeling: Nancy Tucker, Manager; Dione Simpson, Martha Gray, Mary Brantly, Deanie Hathcock, Peggy Lowder, Mae Coleman, Phyllis Kiser, Manager.

Standing: Betty Lomax, Betty Jean Long, Sybil Burleyson, Polly Page, Maxine Lentz, Connie Russell.

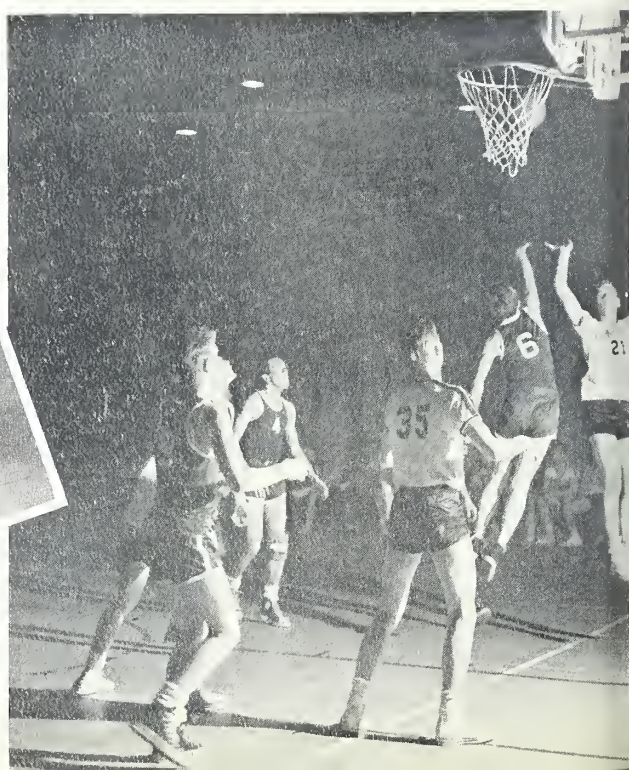

Sybil goes in for a goal. There was good down court blocking.

Ray is up in the air over this shot.

BASEBALL

Coach Jack Sparks had to build an entire new Spider team for the '53 season. He had only two lettermen, Roy Clyburn and Dink Jordan returning from the good team of '52.

The Senior Chorus, under the direction of William Tritt, is organized to give CHS students a chance to participate in the musical activities at Concord High. Sixty-three strong, the chorus has taken part in many programs at school, in the community and in the State Contest Festivals.

The season began with a program at Central Methodist Church and a short Thanksgiving program at the high school. The Christmas season was marked by the annual joint concert with the C.H.S. Band. The new year found the C.H.S. Chorus touring the different grammar schools in the community, preparing for the State Contest Festival at Catawba College, and the annual spring concert at Webb Field.

Here are the cheerleaders of Concord High School. It is they who, dressed in black and gold are always out front, cheering on the team, whether they be winning or losing.

One of the biggest events sponsored at C. H. S. this year was Homecoming, which included a queen and her court, a parade, half-time activities, and a dance, all sponsored by the Cheerleaders.

The Cheerleaders also awarded a trophy to the most improved football player of the year, who was called Mr. Touchdown of '52.

Other events sponsored were outdoor pep rallies, bonfires, dances after football games, and sponsoring student buses for out of town games.
